Poetical.

From the Charleston Courier.

Four Hundred Years Ago.

Wild are thy plains, Columbia,
Thy plains of evergreen;
And ne'er before upon thy shore
Were foreign foot-prints seen;
But thro' thy groves the savage rov'd,
Where mountain streamlets flow,
When brave Columbus crossed the seas
Four hundred years ago!

With heart of steel that feared no ill,
With followers true and brave,
He bade farewell his native dell,
And tried the treacherous wave;
He dared to roam the ocean foam,
Where stormy breezes blow,
And to thy shores glad tidings bore,
Four hundred years ago!

Faith was the guide—faith true and tried,
That cheered him on his way,
And pointed out the pathless route
To where thine islets lay;
Hope was the star that shone afar,
With bright and dazzling glow,
And steered his bark 'mid dangers dark,
Four hundred years ago!

But changed the scene since then I ween
Thy savage chieftains fled;
And where of old the grim wolf strolled,
Proud cities rear their head;
And fertile plains of golden grain,
In rich luxuriance grow,
Where'er 'twas drear as autumn sear,
Four hundred years ago!

On many a crag our starry flag
Waves o'er the brave and free,
And our navies ride in all their pride
On every sounding sea;
And nations gaze in stark amaze,
For well the nations know
Our name and fame was not the same
Four hundred years ago!

And far away, while the wild winds play
Through the forest's dismal night,
An iron steed with lightning speed
Darts like a ray of light;
And steamers glide o'er the sparkling tide,
Where weary and faint and slow,
The red man drew his light canoe,
Four hundred years ago!

Then, hail Columbia, happy land,
Home of the poor oppressed,
May still to thee the exile flee,
And find a place of rest;
And may thy power, increase each hour,
Thy sons in virtue grow,
And die to save what Colon gave
Four hundred years ago!

An immense mass meeting of the Democracy of Clermont and Warren counties, O., was held at Loveland, on Tuesday, August 22d. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Mr. Pendleton said:

I thank the State Central Committee that they have assigned me to Loveland. I have so pleasant a recollection of the last visit I made here, that they could not have given me a more agreeable appointment with which to commence the duties assigned to me during this canvass. Almost the last political speech which I made was here. Soon after I met with an accident which kept me a close prisoner for a long time, and whose effects prevented me from taking an active part in the canvass for the last two years.

Reflection has not increased the acrimony of my temper, nor led me to look with less charity upon the motives of our fellow citizens who differ with us. More and more have I come to see that the widest difference of opinion and conduct in political matters are consistent with the most unselfish patriotism and purest motives. In this canvass while I shall speak with the plainest language of the principles and policy of the Republican party, I shall endeavor to do entire justice to the intentions and motives of men.

READING RADICAL SPEECHES ON OLD OCEAN.

Three weeks ago to-day I was on the ocean. It was a dark, damp, disagreeable voyage. The sun and moon had not appeared for many days. Clouds, and mist, and fog hung around the ship, and the fog bell tolled its fearful clang incessantly. I had recovered from seasickness, and naturally turned for some light and pleasant reading. A friend had sent me to Liverpool a package of American newspapers. I turned them over and my eyes rested on the proceedings of the Republican Convention and the speech of Senator Sherman. I commenced it. The interest deepened as I read on. The fog in the sky and the dampness on the deck were forgotten. What a picture he drew of this Republican Administration! What a picture he drew of national prosperity and felicity! All to be attributed to this Administration! The country and Government so great by reason of this Administration that they command the admiration and respect of every nation in the world! Our powers and sense of justice such that no lately outstanding question had not been settled to our infinite honor, and our infinite advantage! Our natural self appreciation stimulated by the evident appreciation of others! At home there was peace "within our borders and prosperity within our gates!" A benign contentment pervaded all our people, attaching them to each other in fraternal love, and binding all in filial reverence and obedience to a paternal and beneficent Administration! Liberty enjoyed in order! and laws passed only to secure that liberty! Just laws implicitly obeyed! Peace, liberty and prosperity! a trinity of blessings! A brotherhood unbroken! The duties and obligations of a Government so light as to be known only by their blessings! Bad passions already subjugated, soon to be eradicated!! Tariffs already light, soon to be made lighter!! Taxes already small, soon to be made smaller!! Public debt, already almost nothing, soon to be less!! The Administration already pure, soon to be made holy!! And Grant, lately the mailed soldier, lately the incarnation of force, already become "one among ten thousand," and soon to become "altogether lovely!!"

General Garfield followed Sherman. He was enthused by this glowing picture. Even his imagination could only supply a color or add a tint which the Senator had omitted. In a style of his own he soared in the empyrean and caught the rosiest hue which gilds the "bow of beauty and of promise." He descended to the lowest depths of ocean and brought up the tiniest and purest drop which lingered there, that he might catch its brightest sparkle as the sun kissed it on the crest of the billow. And with these he warmed the brilliant picture. I bowed my head in joy. I thanked God that the day of Millenial happiness had come. My surprise was equal to my pleasure. I knew our worthy President had tasted of saving grace in the pure air of Washington, and that, having added works to faith, he had escaped the condemnation that he who careth not for his household is worse than an infidel; and that having done so well at home he had turned his efforts to the islands of the sea. But I did not know that all our people were so happy; that all our country was so smiling; "that the mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs." My soul was filled with impatience to be at home. The ship seemed to move more slowly. The clouds seemed to become drearier, the mist still heavier. I felt as the old hymn has it—

"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand, and cast a wistful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land where my possessions lie."

But alas! In an evil hour I read further. I read Morton's speech, in which he says that every bad passion is let loose at the South, and stimulated and festered by the Democrats of the North, and that murder, assassination, rapine and discord fright honest men and honest capital from the land, and honest negroes from the polls. I read Perry's speech, in which he says that if this present rod, which is no bigger than a man's thumb, is not sufficient to produce order, the next shall be larger and heavier than a man's thigh. I read that the Ku-Klux Committee, having sat in Washington, felt it necessary to face these evils in their home, and to sit in Raleigh, and Charleston, and New Orleans. I read the Ku-klux bill, with its manifold contrivances for destroying disorder by destroying liberty, and for avenging pretended crimes to individuals upon the whole country by suspending the writ of habeas corpus, and by destroying the substance, and even the form of constitutional government. I read the election bill, which makes of free choice a farce, and subjects the returns of the elections to the manipulation of the creatures or to the Executive. I was amazed. I turned again to the speeches of Sherman and Garfield. I saw that they, too, had painted these horrors, but in the background and out of sight. I saw that there was nothing new under the sun. I saw their picture was one of those shifting scenes; when you look at it from one point it shows you the fair face and beautiful form of an angel; from another, the threatening face, the heavy horns and blazing fires of the devil. Whenever they desire to charm the simple by the beneficence of their party they show the picture of smiling prosperity, which delighteth the eye. Whenever they wish to stimulate every bad passion and arouse hatred and suspicions, and fan again into living fire the dying embers of the bitterness of the war, in order that they may snatch from the timidity of some, or the simplicity or love of vengeance of others, a continuance of power, they show the picture of discord and crime and desolation.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE RADICAL PARTY.

In these two speeches there is but one solid, substantial, thorough truth, and that is that the Republican party has had absolute power in the Federal and State Governments for ten years, and that it is responsible for the present condition of the country. More than six years have been of uninterrupted peace. In every direction and in every respect its policies have been carried our without let or obstruction. And, gentlemen, in the face of this admitted fact, I say that whatever of peace exists in the land is due to the patience and forbearance of a great people, North and South, in spite of a policy which, in its general scope and its particular measures, has been violative of every constitutional provision, and calculated to excite their hatred and call out their bitterness, and to sting into disorder, and even rebellion their honest indignation. That whatever material prosperity exists in the land is due to the beneficence of nature and the industry of man, in spite of a policy which has closed up every natural channel of trade, which has violated every sound principle of finance, and has robbed toiling labor of its adequate and just reward.

IS THERE PEACE?

Gentlemen Republicans! is there peace in the land? If there is, why this perpetual crusade against the people of the South? Why this infamous legislation, which, in order to frighten them, sacrifices the dearest rights and liberties we have! Why this ingenuity in irritating and exciting their passions and then flaunting in their faces the red right hand of threatened chastisement? If there is not peace, then you confess that your policy has failed. Then you confess that your reconstruction acts and the State Governments set up under them, executed by carpet-baggers, enforced by military power, and commanded by a multitudinous swarm of Postmasters, Collectors, Marshals and Judges, has failed. I put it to you as honest men, is it not time to change this policy, and to hand over the task to other more competent men?

IS THERE PROSPERITY?

Is there prosperity? You have a tariff which yields more than two hundred millions gold a year. You have an internal revenue system which yields nearly one hundred and fifty millions a year. Your Administration has a larger income than any government in the world. Since your advent into power you have collected more than a thousand millions of dollars. You take to yourselves great credit that you have paid two hundred and thirty millions of the public debt, and yet you admit that in doing so you have unnecessarily, wantonly, without the semblance of justice, and in the face of the decisions of the Supreme Court, wasted twenty-five millions of dollars. Twenty millions of dollars more you have paid each year as a bonus to the banks of the country, while labor groans and trade stagnates under the exactions which you impose upon their earnings.

Is there prosperity? Ask the banker, and he will tell you that discounts and exchanges, the test of active money, are very low. Ask the railroads, and you will find that their passengers and freight, the test of active trade, are reduced twenty, forty and even a larger per centage. Ask the merchants of Cincinnati, and they will tell you that country customers were never so few and made such small bills. Ask the manufacturers and they will tell you the demand for their articles is very slack. Ask the country store-keepers and they will tell you that their sales are very small. Ask the farmers, and they will tell you that they are holding back their crops and their cattle for better prices. Ask the laborer, and he will tell you that employment is scarce, and that wages will scarcely enable him to eke out meat for his family.

I do not desire to overdraw this picture. This is my observation. I put it to you—you who represent every department of industry and business—whether there is not this stagnation everywhere?

Ask men who have failed why they have failed, and they will tell you it was not for the lack of industry and energy; not from intemperance or carelessness; not from loss in the quantity of their stock of goods or property, but because their sales were slow and prices were decreasing. They were obliged to sell for less than they had agreed to pay. The proceeds would not suffice to pay their notes, much less afford them a profit for a living. Ask those who have not failed, and they will tell you that they are consuming the accumulated profits of other years, and that unless a change soon occurs they must give up business or fail.

FINANCIAL POLICY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Gentlemen, this is true, it must be so. This is the natural result of the financial policy of the Republican party. During the war a million of men were taken from the ranks of producers and placed among the consumers; an expanding currency, stimulated to an unusual, and perhaps unnatural, activity every branch of industry. The government furnished an absorbing market for almost every product. The apparent profits created fancied wants, which could be gratified at almost any cost. Business was intoxicated with the excitement of "flush times." When the war ceased these consumers were remitted to their position of producers. They needed work. The government market was instantly closed, and the only substitute was the demand of these discharged soldiers and of the impoverished South. The debt, funded and floating, all had been created under an increasing currency, and at the highest prices. Taxation, the amount of which was necessarily enormous, must be paid, every dollar of it, by the earnings of labor. Now, what was the dictate of reason—I will not say of financial learning—but of plain, common sense? Obviously it was to pursue such a policy as would foster trade and offer fair returns for enterprise and industry and secure to activity an ample, generous reward, to encourage bold, brave men to open up new channels for constant and hopeful labor. This policy would furnish employment to those millions of men. Their necessities would furnish a market, and their wages would pay the prices. Industry thus fostered would yield its sure returns. The price of labor, and of the products of labor thus maintained, would bear their burdens of taxation cheerfully, at least without suffering. Public creditors would be paid in full. The tax-payer would not be harrassed, and when the debt was paid or equitably adjusted, the transition from war to peace could have been made without the shock or panic which have been felt. It only needed a steady hand to keep the currency at its proper height. It only needed to keep the warm, rich blood—so much as the system had already shown that it could utilize—coursing through the arteries and returning through the veins. But blindly—or else wickedly, with their eyes open—they adopted a different policy. They discouraged enterprise, they palsied activity, and closed the avenues of industry. They kept idle these millions of men. They closed the markets, they caused falling prices, and while they decreased the nominal amount of the debt they increased the actual burdens of taxation. They contracted the currency, and thus injured every man in the community except the private creditor and the public bondholder. And, not content with this, they exempted the bondholder from taxation, and insisted upon paying him not only his debt, but also a bonus of ten or twelve or fifteen per cent. for receiving it. And this policy has been pursued until this day. In the meantime, taxation has been kept up to more than four hundred millions of dollars per annum. The currency has been decreased more than three hundred millions. And the bonded debt of the country, though nominally reduced two hundred and thirty millions, has been actually increased in weight and oppressiveness. The earnings of our country are supposed to be sixteen hundred millions of dollars.

TAXATION.

Our taxation is equal to twenty-five per cent. of all the earnings, of all the intellect and all the ingenuity and labor of every man and woman and child in the country. Is it not true that nothing could have saved us from the ruin of the policy except the unparalleled fertility of our soil, and the wonderful energy and activity of our people? This whole policy, in all features; its contraction of currency; its establishment of banks; funding of the debt; purchasing of the bonds; paying them in gold; taxation and tariffs, is in the interest of capital and to the injury of labor—one and all these measures are designed to, and do, in fact, benefit the capitalist at the expense of the working masses.

No country in the world has a system so onerous as our Internal revenue system. It is unequal, unjust, unquisitorial. It has held out temptation to dishonesty, and rewards to dishonor. It has rendered revenue affidavits suspected as "officer's oaths." It has made perjury and bribery common, if not respectable. It has filled the land with spies, informers and pimps, who have imposed upon honesty the burdens from which vice has corruptly bought exemption. It has realized the time—

"When knaves and fools o'er all prevail,
And weigh out justice in a golden scale."

RINGS AND MONEY IN CONGRESS.

The whole system of the Republican party produces this result. I will not trace the means; the result is before us. The legislation of Congress on taxation, and tariffs, and banks, and railroads, is controlled by rings, and influenced by money; on political questions; on Ku-Klux bills; on the San Domingo treaties, by the interference of the President and the bribery of his patronage. Public offices are bought by presents or awarded to needy relatives. Defalcations are as frequent as the weeks, and neither restitution is enforced nor punishment awarded. Corruption hides not its head in secret places, but flaunts itself in the public gaze.

So common is this that every official act is believed to be in the interest of a job, and there is not in the government a character so pure as not to be suspected of participating in its profits. The obligations of official duty sit lightly upon the President; can we wonder that his subordinates fail to perform theirs? Gentlemen, I say this sadly; but it is sometimes better that the ear should be shocked with the expression of a sentiment which lies silent in every heart.

REPUBLICAN DISREGARD OF THE CONSTITUTION.

But, if we turn from the consideration of these questions to the other phases of our condition, what ground is there for Mr. Sherman's eulogy on his party? Our government was—I say was—a constitutional government. It was framed by the delegates from States. It was ratified by the conventions of States. It was a creature of States, endowed by them with all the powers it possessed, and was so plentifully endowed that it could, of itself, perform the duties, defend the powers and perpetuate the existence which had been given to it. Those duties were few. Those powers were ample, but they were limited. The Constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof were the supreme law. All powers not delegated to Congress nor prohibited to States were reserved. The system was so simple that a wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err therein: so apt, so fitting, that it reconciled liberty and law and permitted an indefinite expansion without anarchy on the one hand or despotism on the other. The maintenance of the rights of the States and the doctrine of a strict construction of the Constitution. These are the essential elements of the system. The rights of the States as they are defined in the Constitution and no where else; and not otherwise. The Constitution as it is, fairly read, according to the open and common meaning of its terms—not contracted by ingenuity on the one hand nor enlarged by grasping avarice of power on the other. This is the means of our safety, as it is the Shibboleth of our faith. The Constitution has become, in the mouths of Republicans, a by-word and a reproach. Since Senator Wade announced that anybody who prated about the Constitution was a traitor, the party has acted on that basis. If a favorite measure was thought to be unconstitutional, they amended the Constitution, or violated it, as seemed most easy. Legislatures, elected by fraud or force, were the sure and approved means. If these were too tedious or too long, an act of Congress or an Executive proclamation was always at hand.

BAYONET ELECTION LAW.

I will not go back even for a few years. The last Congress passed an election law. It provided that in cities of certain size the President might appoint inspectors and registers of election, whose authority and acts he will maintain by the army and navy of the United States. Gen. Grant sought to enforce it in New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, and called forth an indignant rebuke from the Governors of those States.

THE KU-KLUX LAW.

The present Congress passed a Ku-Klux bill. Do you remember its provisions? Whenever the President shall believe that in any State a combination of persons shall seek to deprive any man of his rights, the President may take jurisdiction of the subject, and if, in his opinion the State authorities shall seek to deprive any man of his rights, the President may take jurisdiction of the subject, and if in his opinion the State authorities shall be unable or unwilling to redress the wrong, he may suspend the writ of habeas corpus, declare martial law, oust the authorities of all their powers and functions, shut up the courts, dismiss the juries, unseat the judges, and take redress and punisment into his own hands.

Gentlemen, do you appreciate this law? A month ago a mob entered a jail in Illinois and hung one of the prisoners. The President might, under this law, suspend the writ of habeas corpus in that State, and establish there a military government. In the city of New York a riot occurred and lives were lost. The President might, under this law suspend the present government in that State, and govern it by the army of his generals.

GRANT'S USURPATION OF POWER.

Gen. Grant will never use these powers wrongfully, say his sycophants. Gentlemen, this is the insanity of folly. He will apply it whenever passion is to be gratified or elections are to be carried. He has never refused to exercise power. When Georgia voted against him for President he asked authority to suspend the State Government. When Congress delayed, or in the end refused it, he sent Gen. Terry to play dictator there.

When North Carolina did not obey his wishes, he sent a military force to uphold Gov. Holden. When he wanted a delegation in the next Republican Convention for the State of Louisian, he directed that the Convention should be held in the United States Court room, and that no one should be admitted except on the authority of the Marshal, and that a file of soldiers should maintain that authority. When he desired to secure the annexation of San Domingo, he did not hesitate to take money from the Treasury in defiance of law, and pay it in advance of the submission of the treaty to the Senate. He did not hesitate to stipulate that he would keep its existence secret until he had, by the use of his personal and political influence, secured its ratification by the Senate.

When Sumner stood in his way he did not hesitate to eject him from the Committee on Foreign Relations. And now, while the Senate is considering the treaty, he secures from private persons the money and pays the second installment of the purchase. There is a party in San Domingo opposed to annexation. It begins to make headway. Thereupon Gen. Grant sends the army and navy of the United States to protect his vendor in power.

THE DEMOCRACY IN POWER.

Put the Democratic party in power. It has no new promises to make, no new pledges to give. It will remember its organization and history, and traditions, its principles and policy as they have been proclaimed in resolutions and illustrated in practice. It will reform abuses; it will punish corruption; it will restore purity to legislation and honesty to administration; it will be just to the public creditor, and honest to the tax-payer; it will pay the debt in the manner and at the time promised; it will forbid all usurpation of power; it will maintain constitutional government; it will obey; it will exact from all obedience to the Constitution; it will restore self-government to all the States, and bring about an era of harmonious union; of real prosperity; of true liberty.

Open Windows at Night.

The following views on "open windows at night," are important enough to our readers to have a place in our columns at the expense of local news. Let all read it:—Very much has been written on this subject, and written unwisely; the facts are, that whoever sleeps uncomfortably cool will get sick. To hoist a window sky-high when the mercury is at zero is an absurdity. The colder a sleeping apartment is the more unhealthy does it become, because cold condenses the carbonic acid formed by the breathing of the sleeper. It settles near the floor and is rebreathed, and if in a very condensed form, he will die before the morning. Hence we must be governed by circumstances; the first thing is, you must be comfortably warm during sleep, otherwise you are not refreshed, and inflammation of the lungs may be engendered, and life destroyed within a few days. An open door and an open fire-place are sufficient for ordinary purposes in cold weather. When outer windows are opened, it is well to have them down at the top two or three inches, and up at the bottom for the same space, in miasmatic localities—and these are along water-courses, beside millponds, marshes, bayous, river bottoms, flat lands and the like—it is most important, from the first of August until several severe frosts have been noticed, to sleep with all external doors and windows closed, because the cool air of sunset causes the condensation of the poisonous emanations which were caused by the heat of noonday sun to rise far above the earth; this condensation makes the air "heavy" at sundown, made heavy by the greater solidification of the emanations by cold; and rest on the surface of the earth in their more concentrated and malignant form, they are breathed into the lungs, and swallowed into the stomach, corrupting and poisoning the blood with great rapidity. By daylight these condensations are made so compact by the potracted coolness of the night, that they are too near the surface of the earth to be breathed into the system; but as the sun begins to ascend, these heavy condensations, miasms, begin to rise again to the height of several feet above the ground, and are freely taken into the system by every breath and swallow; hence the hours of sunrise and sunset are the most unhealthful of all the hours of the twenty-four in the localities named; and noontide, when the sun is the hottest, is the most healthy portion of the day, because the miasm is so much rarified that it ascends rapidly to the upper regions. The general lessons are, 1st. Avoid exposure to the outdoor air in miasmatic localities for the hours including sunrise and sunset. 2d. Have a blazing fire on the hearth of the family room at these hours, to rarify and send the miasm upwards. 3d. Take breakfast before going out of doors in the morning, and take tea before sundown; then being out after night is not injurious.—Hall's Journal of Health.

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday September 22, 1871

WE publish on our first page some extracts from a recent speech of Hon. GEO. H. PENDLETON, to which we would invite special attention were that necessary. Mr. P. deservedly stands at the head of American statesmen, and if we could have our way would be the next Democratic candidate for President. The combined speculating and swindling interests of the country, however, being against him, his nomination for that position will be prevented, as it was in 1868. His ability as a statesman will not be denied and his speeches are universally read by the intelligent men of the country.

Disorganization and Danger!

The Radical corruption fund is doing its work. Disorganization begins to crop out in all directions. We warned the people before it was publicly apparent that the main dependence for success of the Radicals this fall was upon the large corruption fund they have raised and that this was to be used in sowing discord in the ranks of the Democracy. This discord is to be effected by means of volunteer candidates. In Columbia county the trick has failed—the volunteers are out but they have few Democratic followers, if any.

It is working, however, in some neighboring counties. Schuylkill appears to be seriously divided—Luzerne is threatened—an earnest effort is being made to make the plan successful in Montour and Northumberland, where we are threatened with the loss of two members of the Legislature—and it has also been attempted in the strong Democratic counties and districts generally. Warned of the plot, cannot our friends have the manhood to shake it off—resist it with all their power and crush it to the earth! It is a bare-faced Radical scheme, supported by their corruption fund, and is as completely in their interest as though the candidates were all professed Radicals.

We hope the Democracy will everywhere show that they are not to be fooled, corrupted or defeated by this or any other cunning scheme. Other tricks will also be resorted to. The only safe way to counteract them is to SUPPORT THE WHOLE TICKET. This will completely foil the whole scheme of the Radicals to win by foul play. Teach the leaders in these nefarious enterprises that the Democracy are determined and are neither to be corrupted or compromised or made the victims of scheming tricksters!

Be Warned!

The Radicals have means of raising money for election purposes that the Democrats do not possess. The whole immense horde of National and State office-holders, from the highest to the lowest, are individually taxed for this purpose. All the men who have been enriched by government contracts and speculations are also taxed heavily. All such fellows as EVANS contribute largely from their ill-gotten gains. The State Treasurer, who loans the people's money to the banks, receives from $50,000 to $100,000 annually in that way. A large portion of this is added to the electioneering fund. The New England manufacturers, in whose behalf the people are taxed through tariffs, also contribute heavily. The reader will see at a glance what an immense sum is thus raised. A very large proportion of this amount is expended through the Radical county committees, and the rest by other means.

We do not know what the Radical committee in this county receives. We do know that in a smaller county $2,000 were paid at several different elections each year. In larger counties much larger sums have been paid. A very considerable sum of course annually comes to this county. How much of it is expended and how much sticks to somebody's fingers every one may judge. Of course we have no reliable figures.

What we want to call attention to is that this corruption fund is on hand. That a portion, at least, is being used can not be denied unless the integrity of the holders be attacked. It may not be actually received as yet, but is promised, and advances and promises can be made on the strength of it. To meet this powerful engine, the Democrats have only their own exertions to rely on. But let that exertion be made with vigor. Organize in every township and school district, and see that every Democrat is determined to attend the polls. See that means are provided to take those who have no conveyances of their own, and that not one is left behind.

WM. H. SEWARD, who was far more instrumental than any other man, living or dead, in producing the rebellion, and who so freely imprisoned men of the highest character, in defiance of law and in violation of his own oath, on the general charge of lacking in a patriotism of which he never possessed the least iota himself, it is said is about returning to the country which he betrayed and deluged in blood. Ever since he left office he has been traveling in foreign countries, seeking excitement and notoriety, probably in vain effort to shake off the natural suggestions of a troubled conscience. For him there never can be peace on earth and his prospects beyond it are probably still less cheering. Walking to and fro through the earth was practised by his master, with motives only more malignant because he was the impersonation of the infernal. We don't exactly see how SEWARD can hope further to assist his fiend friend in "devouring" whatever is good on earth. He is justly abandoned and hated as savagely by the men who were his tools in the days of his power as by those who felt his treason and his tyranny. There is a sort of derisive justice in the fact that he is impotent now.

THE GRANT office holders who managed the late Republican Convention in this county, have more disposition than ability to injure the Democracy. Hence they fall into fretful and false calumniation of their opponents and attempt to make up by violent, intemperate, extravagant speech for the weakness and hopelessness of their cause. Very little headway will they make with their two regular candidates—ROBISON and JAMES—or their three irregular ones—LAKE, EVERITT and SHIVE.

A Plain Talk.

The importance of adhering to nominations is too often overlooked. When a party is divided all the energies of its active men are bent to obtain the success of the particular candidates in whom they are interested, and the general interests of the party are more or less neglected. When the party is thoroughly united, all these energies are directed against the common opponent. It is therefore apparent why the common opponent always favors volunteer candidates—they serve him better than his own friends can serve him. It further happens that volunteers always enter into arrangements and bargains with the opposition. As they have their own party organization to fight they make common cause with the party that favors and supports them. What an effective means this is to weaken the majority party will be apparent to every body.

Last year the combination of volunteers and Republicans was successful in Columbia county. This year the same attempt is made. If successful again the same game will be attempted next year, and so the mischief will continue until the majority party is broken up or its majority destroyed. This, too, must be apparent to every body. But if the volunteers are as badly beaten this year as they should be, there will be no trouble in the future. Our family quarrels will then be fought out before the convention, when they can do no harm.

Does not every Democrat, therefore, see the importance of adhering faithfully to the nominations?

The candidates this year all pledged their word to submit to the decision of the convention. Every volunteer now before the people was so pledged, publicly and in plain terms. Will the people elect a man to office who thus violates his word—his solemn engagement! If any man thus directly violates his word, publicly given to every body, can he be depended upon in any thing else he says or promises? Is a man who does not regard his word a fit person to be put into office? These are questions for each voter to decide for himself.

Every man who expects to be a candidate hereafter should bear in mind that if the volunteers are successful now he will probably have the same difficulty to meet hereafter.

In fact, the interests of every Democrat, and of the whole Democratic party, demand that volunteers shall be discarded, and that complete union and harmony shall be preserved. If you would maintain your strength, Democrats of Columbia, adhere to your ticket and every man on it.

Assembly.

JAMES BOYD ROBISON, Esq., the Radical candidate for Assembly, has name enough to fill any office—possibly vanity enough too. He was a soldier, and for aught we know butchered more rebels than any other man in the nation, but BATES' history (an official history of the Pennsylvania soldiers) does not make the brilliant record for him that it does for BROCKWAY. Both are members of the bar, but BROCKWAY has much the largest practice, though in other business all the time. It would scarcely be generous to speak of BOYD's age, as that might affect him with people who are not voters, but in this respect neither candidate has material advantage of the other. In intellect, energy, political and general knowledge of government and of public wants and the ways to supply them, BROCKWAY is greatly superior to his opponent and would therefore make much the best Representative. So far as correct political principles is a superior qualification to possessing the worst, all the advantages are with BROCKWAY, as is the case too in habits of thought and action. For some years past ROBISON has held a little place under the Federal government, which he used in assisting to torment some of the unfortunates who fell under the ban of the revenue laws. In this capacity he came about as near setting the world on fire as he ever will in any other. Whether he has yet engaged rooms in Harrisburg we do not know but think it likely, though his chance of election is about as good as his chance to be appointed King of Dahomey. As one of the Radical ring of Bloomsburg, he is about as efficient as his brethren in concocting small tricks and petty but groundless slanders upon his fellow citizens, and probably comes in for a share of the spoils accumulated by that institution.

Looking at the relative prospects of the candidates for Assembly, we do not think the subject worth discussing, and make these remarks only to avoid the charge of being ignorant of the fact that there is a Republican candidate in the field.

THE Bloomsburg Republican is rather meek this week, and though it faintly echoes "ring," "robbers," &c., it dare not give its accusations a manly form and name the men it means to slander. We reiterate DEFIANCE and hurl back the charges insinuated, daring the little malicious Radical ring to put their base insinuations into such form as to make a fair issue!

If there is a county in the Commonwealth whose affairs are managed in a more strictly economical manner than those of Columbia, we would like to have it pointed out. Our officers are well known to the people, each and every one is an honest man and an efficient, capable and valuable officer. We dare any calumniator to impeach the integrity of any one of them. To every caviller we say, make your charge, like a man—you will be met. The officers are at least entitled to fair and decent treatment. All they ask is, if any man has fault to find with their official action, let him name it, and give those implicated a chance to vindicate themselves. To make insinuations against them as a body, is not only otherwise indefensible but cowardly, for against such attacks no one can defend himself. A man's good name is a thing too sacred to be trifled with and he is a villain who will attack it in such manner as to screen himself from responsibility. We do not apply that epithet in this case, as the editor of the Republican does not seem to comprehend the character of his act, but we call upon him now to assume the full responsibility of his conduct.

THE radical loss in Maine since 1868 is over 15,000. At the late election the democrats gained a number of members of the legislature and held the radical majority down to about 10,000. In 1868 it was 26,986.

Massachusetts.

BEN. BUTLER is doing the one good thing of his life—shaking up the dry bones of Massachusetts. As all pollution is supposed to be purified by being thoroughly stirred up and exposed to the action of the atmosphere, the great Beast's mad exploits may do some good in the narrow-minded commonwealth. Massachusetts has long been governed as a commonwealth of slaves by a sort of snobby aristocracy who look upon the idea of any one of the common horde being Governor as a disgrace. They look upon BUTLER as only a blackguard leader of the low and vulgar, whom they affect to despise. Nor do BUTLER's aspirations stop there. He wants to be elected Governor with a view to an election to the U. S. Senate, crowding out either of the present demagogues now in that place. Of course all yankeedom (Massachusetts being the centre, pivot and dictator) is in a furor. BEN. won't say that he will abide by the decision of the Radical convention and no doubt intends to run at all hazzards. He says to the Labor Reformers, "I do not desire your nomination—I accept your platform!" All the isms, excepting the purely snob Radical, are for him, and the prospect is a fair one that the latter will be compelled to choose between him and JOHN QUINCY ADAMS! In any case BUTLER's candidacy will do good in Massachusetts—it will break up the snob control of the State, the worst that can exist, and give something better even though nothing commendable.

Business in Court.

Notwithstanding the continuance of all civil causes upon the trial list at the late sitting of our County Court a considerable amount of regular and miscellaneous business was transacted. In fact a great deal of the work performed by President Judges does not appear to the public in Court reports, being performed by them at chambers between terms and also during terms. In some way and in some form, all the knotty and difficult questions of law which come into controversy between citizens and which members of the bar cannot agree upon, or cannot solve, are cast upon the President Judge for decision. Cases in the Orphan's Court relating to estates; cases upon the argument list generally; bills in equity under modern practice, in addition to road and election questions and many other matters of special jurisdiction, press constantly upon the attention of the Judge in addition to his more observable and conspicuous duties in the trial of civil and criminal cases by jury. Perfect integrity, with steady industry and patience are necessary in a Judge, and to him who exhibits them the people are under the deepest obligation. This obligation may not always be admitted, (at least in its full extent,) but it is a real one and in the long run will receive due and grateful recognition from both the legal profession and the public.

Disloyalty Now and Then!

In 1861 the Rads pretended to think Mr. HIRAM F. EVERITT so unpatriotic and disloyal that it was necessary to arrest him and lock him up. Now a Radical ring in Bloomsburg trades the whole Republican party off to him—deliberately sells the whole crowd to him, so far as their votes are concerned, for his use, benefit and behoof forever, as the lawyers say. Something queer in all that! Of course if the Radical masses choose to allow a Radical "ring" of office-holders in Bloomsburg to trade them off it is none of our business, but to be traded off to a "disloyal enemy of the Union," which they swore he was in 1861, (and of which he says he has not repented,) if not treason itself is encouraging what was stigmatized as treason. Did they slander EVERITT then, and wrongfully persecute him, or has disloyalty become reputable and patriotic, and worthy of Radical votes? Their votes will tell the tale!

Constitutional Amendment.

By the act of last session for taking the sense of the people upon the question of calling a Constitutional Convention, votes for or against a Convention are to be given upon slip tickets under the ticket heading "State." The words to be used are: "Constitutional Convention," and underneath, "for a Convention," or "against a Convention," and the tickets are to be counted and returns thereof made as votes for Governor are counted and returned under existing laws. We shall, therefore, print the Convention ticket, (on the tickets issued from this office,) immediately under the names of the candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General; and as we are in favor of a Convention shall print affirmative votes only unless others shall be specially ordered.

New Jersey.

The recent Democratic State Convention of New Jersey wisely laid aside all the candidates and nominated Hon. JOEL PARKER for Governor. We hope to see the practice generally introduced, in the nomination of important officers at any rate, to lay aside the aspirants for nobler and better men who do not obtrude themselves. Mr. PARKER was Governor during the war times, and acquitted himself to the admiration of all patriotic men who understood American institutions. He had the courage to discharge his duty to the people of his State as well as to the Federal Government, and was the only Governor in the Union who had the firmness to do so. He is one of the ablest men in the nation and would be a highly creditable nominee for President.

County Surveyor.

The Democratic county convention having over-looked the office of County Surveyor, the Standing Committee have placed ISAAC A. DEWITT, Esq., of Greenwood township, the present Surveyor, upon the ticket. This action is proper, the office itself not being of sufficient consequence to warrant the re-assembling of the Convention, and Mr. DEWITT having heretofore been endorsed by the Democracy for that position, both by nomination and election.

California.

The recent election in California is not quite so favorable to the Radicals as was at first supposed. The Senate remains Democratic, the House is in doubt, and one of the Democratic State candidates is elected. This looks as though the railroad question had controlled the majority in the State.

DEMOCRATS, remember, that a hearty support of our county ticket will do much to help our State ticket.

THE GREAT RADICAL SYNDICATE!

THE NATION ROBBED BY THE MILLION!

TAX-PAYERS LOOK AT THE FIGURES!

Steal Upon Steal and Theft Upon Theft!

The accounts of the Post Office Department show a balance unaccounted for of NINETEEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS!

The accounts of the Treasury Department show a balance unaccounted for of over TWO MILLIONS!

U. S. Treasurer SPINNER fails to account for bonds that have passed into his hands to the amount of THREE MILLIONS!

By hoarding gold in the Treasury and paying interest on bonds to an equal amount the people lose more than SIX MILLIONS annually.

ONE MILLION of the people's money was stolen by a government attache from the wrecked steamer Golden Rule!

THREE MILLIONS missing on account of sale of arms, vessels and munitions of war!

ONE MILLION missing on account of sale of iron clads to Peru!

Upon bonds deposited by bankers to secure their issues the people pay an interest of TWENTY MILLIONS, which might be saved by issuing greenbacks in their stead!

W. L. HODGE, a paymaster at Washington, has recently proven a defaulter to the amount of HALF A MILLION TO A MILLION of dollars!

BAILEY, a New York revenue collector, stole near ELEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars and then ran away!

Recently Mr. NORTON, of the New York Post Office, proved a defaulter to the amount of TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, and other defalcations in the same office exist.

A Kansas revenue collector recently stole over A HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars, and the Radical Senators from that State settled the whole claim with the department at Washington for eleven thousand!

The other defalcations of revenue collectors amount to MILLIONS!

The Radical Postmaster at Atlanta, Georgia, has just been detected in a defalcation of THIRY THOUSAND dollars.

GEO. O. EVANS, State war claim agent of Pennsylvania, has stolen THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars, as a compensation for cheating the Federal government out of MILLIONS!

The Radical State Treasurer of Pennsylvania annually cheats the people of the State out of FIFTY TO A HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars, interest upon the people's money loaned to Banks!

The Radical "Syndicate" in Europe charged the government over FIFTY MILLIONS for negotiating the recent loan, besides thousands spent by sending agents to assist them!

While government officials in every direction and every quarter are robbing the Nation, the Radical President idles his time away at the Long Branch race course, and his Secretaries are traveling the country making personal speculations and attending to and corrupting politics!

Will not the people arouse themselves to this wholesale ROBBERY and NEGLECT OF DUTY! It will be seen that in every department of the State and National governments, robberies on the grandest scale are being committed, while none of the principal officers are attending to their duties! Will the people submit to this?

Did ever before a President and Cabinet so palpably neglect their duties? Were there ever such robberies?

People cry out HARD TIMES—they groan under OPPRESSIVE TAXATION—every article they eat, or drink, or wear, and every pursuit they follow, is HEAVILY TAXED—TAXATION stares them in the face at every turn—yet the highest officers in the land, receiving extravagant salaries, neglect their business to revel at sea-shore watering places, patronizing horse races and attending to personal interests and gratifications, while their subordinates are ROBBING THE PEOPLE BY THE MILLION!

While all this is going on the Radical CONGRESS is voting away the public lands by thousands and tens of thousands of acres—by whole townships, and counties, and sections—nearly every Radical Congressman grows rich as the result of these votes to swindle the people—the land is filled with SHODDY ARISTOCRATS—the people are oppressed and beggared and poverty grinds thousands into the dust!

The elective franchise is disgraced and corrupted, the ballot-box is polluted and governed by the bayonet—the rights of people and of States are outraged, defied and set at naught—immorality and crime pervade the land as the direct result of Radical rule—honest men are harrassed and criminals escape justice—when our Courts convict scoundrels of riot, stuffing ballot boxes and altering election returns, the criminals are pardoned—in short, every outrage that can be practised upon a free people is being perpetrated, yet thousands are induced by party association to sustain this abominable state of affairs!

It is the duty of every man who loves his country to make all the effort in his power to stay this tide of corruption and wrong doing. The BALLOT-BOX is the place to correct all these evils. Although BRIBERY is doing its work to sow discord in the ranks of those who attack and attempt to defeat the outrages we have enumerated, the honest people are arousing with a determination to THROTTLE THE MONSTER, and this effort will be continued until the work is accomplished. LET ALL PREPARE FOR THE STRUGGLE, FOR IT IS AT HAND!

WE observe that EBEN G. SCOTT, Esq., the Democratic candidate for President Judge of the Northumberland Judicial District, has in press a work, entitled "Commentaries on the Intestate Law of Pennsylvania."

A book on that subject is very much needed, and we are glad to find that Mr. SCOTT, has been turning his scholarship and legal learning toward a subject that so much needs discussion and elucidation. It is seldom that we find a young man devoting himself to the severer legal studies, most of them preferring the recreation of the gun and the fishing rod, when their duties permit. Mr. SCOTT is of a different make and will adorn the Bench, to which we earnestly hope he may be elected.

"A QUIET election," is the remark we hear on every side in regard to the canvass of the present year. But because it is quiet it does not follow that it is unimportant, or that reasonable, or in fact diligent efforts ought not to be made by our political friends to secure a full vote. In fact, under just such circumstances as those which now exist, the most diligent, energetic party will always win. And what party ought to be diligent, earnest and energetic in effort if the Democratic party should not? For ten years we have looked on and seen misgovernment obtain in both the State and Federal governments in its two most odious forms of corruption and oppression, and we should eagerly seize the earliest and every opportunity to restore constitutional and just administration to our State and country. Let it be kept in mind that labor and effort put forth this year by which success shall be achieved, will have a powerful influence upon the great elections for President, Governor and Congressmen in 1872.

Luzerne County.

The Democracy of Luzerne county last week nominated the following excellent ticket, and we are pleased to learn are thoroughly united in its support:

Senator—Frank D. Collins.
Associate Judge—D. K. Morss.
Assembly—Peter Quigley, B. D. Koons, Elliot P. Kisner, P. D. Delacey.
Sheriff—Aaron Whitaker.
Treasurer—F. W. Gunster.
Commissioner—Andrew J. Williams.
Coroner—Dr. William E. Barrett.
County Surveyor—James P. Weller.
Auditor—James E. Perkins.

It is a source of pleasure, too, to observe that the Luzerne Union, the able organ of the party, has been much improved in typographical appearance and is now not only readable but a very handsome paper.

THE Wyoming Journal is very indignant because we have not read a history of the life of STANTON and BEATH which the editor says he printed. We have never seen it, or any other, though we always look over the editorial columns of the Journal and all other exchanges. As we are quite anxious to know something about the Radical candidates the editor will favor us by sending a copy of his history of these mortals. We think, however, that the vials of his tremendous wrath should not be poured out upon our humble head alone, for evidently the Radical editors have not seen his history, or don't think it worth republishing.

THE latest accounts from Europe declare the continuance of the cholera in Russia and Prussia, though at some points it is decreasing in the former country as it advances westward. At Konigsberg in Prussia over ninety cases were reported in one day with sixty-odd deaths, and the day following there were sixty-six cases and over forty deaths. This is from a city scourged for some time by the disease and where it is represented as decreasing. No doubt this great scourge (so mysterious in origin and character) will reach our country during the coming year.

Great Importance of the Auditor General.

READ AND REFLECT!

Let no one undervalue the importance of the State ticket at this great epoch of official corruption. The check upon it in this State, is in the Auditor-General's office. If there is inefficiency or collusion there, the State may be robbed of millions, and the public never hear a word of it. If there is capacity and zeal in that office, prompt detection will follow on the first defalcation in any accountant who has public money in his hands. Read the following provisions of the law declaring the powers of the Auditor-General, and see how ample are his means of detecting and pursuing frauds against the State:

By the act of 1811, power is given to him to enforce the attendance at his office and of all parties or witnesses, in the case of any person "intrusted with the receipt, or who has, or hereafter may become possessed of, public money." Any person refusing to exhibit his account, or to answer such questions as may be put to him by the Auditor-General, may be by him committed to jail till he shall comply with this act, or be otherwise discharged by due course of law. He has authority to issue the summons, and enforce the same by attachment in every such case. He may direct the Sheriff of any county in the Commonwealth to seize the persons or the papers of any one residing in his bailiwick who has neglected to account on the call of the Auditor-General. Many subsequent acts enlarge and apply these powers to the various class of accountants who have, from time to time, been made responsible to the Auditor-General.—Age.

Such is the importance of the Auditor General's office. The Radicals have control of the State Treasury and will probably retain it. The EVANS swindle shows how the State may be robbed by favorites when both Auditor General and State Treasurer belong to the same party, yet this EVANS swindle makes up only a portion of what is annually stolen from the people by the ring of politicians who now have control of the State Treasury. How important is it, therefore, that the officer who audits the accounts should be of a different political party from those who receive and expend the money? The people will save hundreds of thousands annually by electing Gen. M'CANDLESS. Common prudence, therefore, requires his election.

If STANTON is elected, he and the State Treasurer can speculate on the State funds to any extent they please, robberies will be continued, and the people will be none the wiser of it, unless some subordinate would happen to "peach," as in the case of EVANS.

THE notorous Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of New Jersey, but was badly defeated. He does not appear to be much admired at home.

A FULL vote is a Democratic victory. That fact should be the key-note of all our efforts.

NEW MEXICO.—The Radicals crowed a little too soon about New Mexico. It now appears that the Democratic candidate was elected to Congress by 2500 majority over the combined vote of his Radical competitors! This is a gain for the Democrats.

SHEEP AND DOGS!

By General Statute, act of 11th April, 1851, it shall be lawful for any person to shoot or kill any dog found or known to be worrying or chasing sheep, or accustomed so to do—without liability to the owner.

And the owner shall be liable for all damages done or caused to be done by such dog or dogs, in an action of trespass vi. et. armis, before a Justice.

If a dog shall have been known to worry sheep and information thereof be given to his owner, it is the duty of the owner to kill him. If the owner do not kill him he shall make full compensation for the damage done, and any person seeing such a dog running at large may kill him —7. Harris, 359.

This is part of the Old Law (and is not repealed) Different persons have been named as refusing to kill their dogs after knowing that they killed sheep. Why a person can reasonably think that he would be allowed to keep a dog known to kill sheep, is really a mystery. It is both unreasonable and unlawful.

If kill-sheep dogs are thus permitted to run at large, the sheep fund must sink.

It is for the good of the citizens of the county that we give this information.

In several regions of the county a large number of sheep have lately been killed by such dogs.

The auditors will please, in all cases, report, if they can ascertain whose dog killed the sheep they are called upon to appraise, and if the owner knew or had notice of the propensity of the dog, and we will assist them and the owners of the sheep destroyed, to bring such persons to justice.

TAKE CARE.—Cool mornings and hot suns at meridian, with exposure to it is the surest method of preparing the system to take ague.—Avoid exposure.

THE Williamsport Standard says: The magnificent new depot of the Catawissa R. R., at this place, is rapidly approaching completion. It is the best building of the kind, outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburg, in the State.

JUDGE MORROW has instructed the Bradford county grand jury that it was its duty to take cognizance of horse-racing. There is a stringent law against horse racing, and yet it is violated with impunity every day.

STOVES have been in demand again recently, and those consistent people who wont put up one before the 1st of October, have had a shivering time of it. By-the-way, some philosophers inform us that if a stove is put up by a male biped without swearing there will be peace in that family for at least a year to come! Try it.

PROF. H. D. WALKER, of Bloomsburg, has been appointed principal of the Normal School at Waverly, which will probably soon be organized as a State institution. The professor is well qualified for his new position, and while our people will regret to lose him as a citizen they will be pleased by his promotion to a position of usefulness.

BUSINESS MEN.—The Doctors; all of them, even to the youngest of the lot, being kept busy daily and nightly chasing up the ague patients.—Danville Intelligencer.

We believe ague prevails pretty generally along the North Branch, though in Bloomsburg it is confined to the lower parts of the town.

DEATH OF AN AGED MAN.—On Wednesday last John G. Youngman, of Sunbury, the founder of the Sunbury "Gazette," and father of the present editor, died at his residence in that place. He was the oldest man living in Sunbury, his age being about 86 years. He had been confined to his room but a few days.—Watsontown Record, Sept. 15.

IN the proceeding in Equity to restrain the Town Council of Centralia, and certain contractors, from proceeding to execute certain contracts for fixing and repairing streets in said borough, Judge ELWELL read an opinion in Court on Saturday last, refusing the preliminary injunction asked for, and the case goes over for final hearing hereafter on bill and answer.

THE fraternity of printers about the COLUMBIAN office were greatly obliged by Judge RUPERT, last week, who presented them with a generous supply of Concord grapes, and some wine, for which he has their most profound acknowledgements. The grapes were splendid specimens. Judge R. raised about three tons of them.

We neglected last week to notice a box of wild grapes—the largest we ever saw—present by Mr. ALBERT ACHENBACH, of Orange township, who also has our thanks.

JOHN LORMAN died suddenly, on Saturday last, in GILMORE'S saloon, probably of apoplexy. Esquire BROWER summoned an inquest, who certify that no marks of violence appeared on his body and that he "died by the visitation of GOD in the natural way." What proof they had of this latter fact (if it be a fact) we are not informed, but we doubt whether they could substantiate it in a legal proceeding. No doubt the jury did not know the cause of the death, notwithstanding their presentment.

IN the matter of some ten or twelve petitions presented at the late Court for the appointment of viewers to assess damages for right of way against the Danville, Hazleton and Wilkesbarre railroad Company, the Court appointed viewers under the provisions of the general railroad law and fixed the 3d of October (Tuesday) as the time for their meeting. The cases are upon the line of the road in Catawissa, Main and Beaver townships, and we suppose the viewers will meet at Catawissa and be engaged at least two or three days in the performance of their duties.

FISH, &C.—In our advertising columns the people of this county will find a notice from Sheriff SMITH informing the public that he is called upon to enforce the fish law and that nobody will be permitted to erect fish-baskets in the river, or other streams.

We observe that the papers along the Juniata unite in declaring that there are now millions of young black Bass (a very large and superior fish—salmon) from one to three inches in length in that stream. This results from a few grown fish of the species having been put into the river at Huntingdon about one year ago. From this it will be seen that the North Branch, Fishingcreek and lesser streams in Columbia county, can be speedily filled with this excellent and profitable fish, at a small expense and in a short time, if people will attend to it and protect the fish after they are placed in the streams. In four years Bass are said to have their full growth and then weigh several pounds each. After that, if no means of fishing by baskets or other thing that destroys their young is permitted, the supply will be inexhaustible. Will not somebody start a movement to stock our streams? Especially should it be done in Fishingcreek, where the expense would not exceed $25. Sheriff SMITH promises protection so far as the law and the power of his office can give it. We would suggest the holding of a meeting at some point to raise the funds and draw the attention of the people interested.

GYPSIES.—A party of Gypsies has been encamped near Bloomsburg for some time past, pursuing their occupation of horse-trading, begging, telling fortunes when they can find fools to pay them for it, &c. This singular people are literally an anomaly. Always roving, they have neither country or home. Always hanging about the skirts of civilization and traversing civilized countries, they yet never become entirely civilized. Without ordinary means of education, they are cunning, subtle, and have much of some sort of intelligence. They seem instinctively to form a fair estimate of the character of any one that approaches them or comes in contact with them, so far at least as their own interests or welfare is concerned.

We believe them to be entirely harmless, excepting their deceptions in trades, fortune telling, &c. Perhaps there is little reliance to be placed on any statements they may make. But we regard it as a popular fallacy that they are thieves and kidnappers of children. Certain it is we have never heard of an instance of any of them being legally convicted of either of these offences, or any other. As they move through the country in the most open and undisguised manner, and with the utmost leisure, if they committed indictable offences they would be readily arrested. Without friends or sympathetic relations with the rest of the community, it would be an easy matter to convict them if any thing could be proved against them. Yet whoever heard of the conviction of any of them? We believe the truth to be that they are careful not to do anything that is in violation of law.

If anybody pays them for telling his fortune we think he is punished just about properly by losing the money he pays, and when he finds himself thoroughly fooled it may teach him a little common sense—just a little by way of planting the germ of that seed in his stupid brain. Their professed powers of enchantment are so extremely absurd that whoever fears them ought to make a straight march for a lunatic asylum.

RECONSTRUCTED.—That time honored institution called "The Bloomsburg Brass Band" having in the natural course of events become somewhat "dilapidated" by reason of diminution in number, &c., finally collapsed on the evening of the 4th of July, 1871. But through the influence of several of the old members aided by new ones it has again been reorganized and recruited to the full complement of 16 members, and they have purchased a handsome set of new instruments at a cost of $356,00 from Wm. Serfeldt of Philadelphia. They will occupy for practice a room in the brick building of H. J. Clark. The name will hereafter be Bloomsburg Cornet Band. The officers are A. W. Monroe, President; Daniel Leacock, Secretary; and Jacob S. Evans, Treasurer.—Reporter.

Obituary.

Died at Town Hill, Huntington township, Luzerne county, on Saturday morning, September 16th, Rev. EPAPHRAS WADSWORTH, aged nearly seventy-seven years. He was born in New Lebanon, State of New York, September 28, 1794, whence his parents removed to Huntington in the year 1808. He was a farmer and at different times a merchant and school teacher, and filled various local offices. In the mature and later years of his life he was frequently appointed Executor or Administrator, and settled many estates in his section. The deceased was from boyhood a prominent, active and influential member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for more than thirty years a local preacher of the church, while for more than half a century his house was, whenever occasion required, a house of hospitality to preacher and layman. Endowed by nature with a sound understanding and an equable temper, he was well fitted to be useful and popular in the community in which he lived and where he was fully known. Deservedly, he enjoyed the complete respect and confidence of all his neighbors and the warm attachment of all his intimate friends.

On the occasion of funeral services at the Town Hill Church on Sunday last, a sermon was preached by Rev. SHADRACH B. LAYCOCK, from the text, Psalm, xxxvii, v. 37—"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

DIED—On Friday, September 15, 1871, REUBEN W. BOWMAN, of Orange township, this county aged 31 years, 1 month and 5 days.

Mr. BOWMAN was a son of WESLEY and MARY BOWMAN, and leaves a wife, the daughter of ABNER WELSH, Esq., and two children. Although he was cut down early in life, his career had secured to him a large circle of warm friends. Frank, open and courteous in all his relations with his fellow men, with a quick perception and an ingenious mind, he had become a useful as well as marked member of community.

For several years he was connected with D. K. SLOAN, Esq., in the mercantile business at Orangeville, but at the time of his death, was residing on a farm near that place, recently purchased by him, where doubtless he hoped to gather about him the comforts of a rural home and live the quiet and independent life of a farmer.

When the flag of his country was fired upon in 1861, Mr. BOWMAN then under the age of 20, enrolled his name among its defenders and became an honored member of Co. A., 6th Regt., Pa. Res. with the rank of Sergeant. He participated in several hard fought battles and received a gun-shot wound through the left lung at the battle of Fredericksburg, Va., December 13, 1862. He was buried on Sunday, September 17th, the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, in which battle he acted a gallant part just nine years before.

His comrades, some of whom were present to drop a last tear at his grave, remember with pleasure the manly deportment and indomitable courage of Sergeant BOWMAN. His generosity in dividing rations—his genial conversations around the campfire—his alertness on the picket and his sterling conduct in the fierce storm of battle, will never be forgotten by those who knew him during the dark days of the Rebellion. They realize that he is dead but entertain the common hope of the soldier that his tent is now pitched among those of his comrades who have gone before, in the pleasant camping grounds on the other side of the silent river.

The country owes much to his services and his wife and little ones will always find friends among his surviving comrades.

AN "IRON GUARD."

Handenburgh & Co's. Show.

These Menageries will be found, in all respects, worthy of the attention of those who delight in inspecting the various specimens of natural history, inasmuch as the number of their inmates and the extent of the variety of the species, it is said, have never been equaled in this country by any organization ever fitted out. Messrs. Handenburgh & Co., have invested some $150,000 in the enterprise, and claim to have "shows" which are gigantic, both in dimensions and attractions. They have twenty-four dens of living beasts and birds—about two hundred and fifty creatures in all, and require one hundred and sixty horses in transporting the immense caravan. Their circuses have been pronounced "first-class," and their entire entertainment has met with a decided success, and rendered general satisfaction.

We take pleasure in commending this Show to the public, feeling satisfied that all who patronize it will be well entertained, highly edified, and as it is probably the last of the season, no doubt our citizens and neighbors will bestow upon it a liberal patronage.

The advertisement appears on the 2d page of our paper this morning, and it is attractive enough to call the attention of our readers.

Now is the time to gather wormwood, catnip, peppermint, boneset, tansey, etc., for the year. They are often wanted, especially where doctors are not handy.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously. PARSON'S PURGATIVE PILLS are safe, prompt, and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

Base ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it often occasions banged eyes, broken shins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases if JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT is resorted to, it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

A curious and unique machine for grinding coffee may be seen at MAIZE'S grocery. Whether the machine was invented to grind coffee, or coffee was invented to be ground by the machine, is the problem to be solved, various merits are claimed for it, but the best way is to test it, or at least go and see it.

Do not fail to call at the new music wareroom of I. W. NILES, as he has just received a splendid assortment of sheet music, and a general assortment of Musical Merchandise. Go and hear the Angelic Organ it has such a beautiful tone, and Prof. NILES will be happy to show the beauties of his Pianos and Organs to all who wish. Give him a call. aug25,'71-tf make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so, to take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so, to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain, by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of this work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a house-keeper; and if he is, the number of his residence, in the towns where the same is numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also, the occupation of the person; and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district, and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R." shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him, and the amounts assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners, who shall immediately add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed, and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observation and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name "V. C." and immediately assess him with a tax, noting as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or a housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designing to be, marking in all such cases the letters opposite the name "N." or "D. I.," as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides, and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns, shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place of said precinct.

Patent Medicines.

ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED.

It is one of the remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not merely that so many persons are the victims of dyspepsia or indigestion, but its willing victims. Now, we would not be understood to say that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or feels disposed to rank it among the luxuries of life. Far from it. Those who have experienced its torments would scout such an idea. All dread it, and would gladly dispense with its unpleasant familiarities. Mark Tapley, who was jolly under all the trying circumstances in which he was placed, never had an attack of dyspepsia, or his jollity would have speedily forsaken him. Men and women sometimes suffer its tortures uncomplainingly, but whoever heard of a person who enjoyed them?

Of all the multifarious diseases to which the human system is liable, there is perhaps no one so generally prevalent as dyspepsia. There are diseases more acute and painful, and which more frequently prove fatal; but none, the effect of which are so depressing to the mind and so positively distressing to the body. If there is a wretched being in the world it is

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC.

But it is not our intention to descant on the horrors of Dyspepsia. To describe them truthfully is simply an impossibility, it is possible to point out a remedy. We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human diseases. This is emphatically the case in the United States. Whether this general prevalence is due to the character of the food, the method of its preparation, or the hasty manner in which it is usually swallowed, is not our province to explain. The great fact with which we are called to deal is this:

DYSPEPSIA PREVAILS

almost universally.

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, and apparently willing one; for were this not the case why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within the easy reach of all who desire to avail themselves of it? But the majority will not. Blinded by prejudice, or deterred by some other unexplained influence, they refuse to accept the relief proffered them. They turn a deaf ear to the testimony of the thousands whose sufferings have been alleviated and with strange infatuation, appear to cling with desperate determination to their ruthless tormentor. But says a dyspeptic: What is this remedy? to which we reply: This great alleviator of human suffering is almost as widely known as the English language. It has allayed the agonies of thousands, and is to-day carrying comfort and encouragement to thousands of others. This acknowledged panacea is none other than

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Would you know more of the merits of this wonderful medicine than can be learned from the experience of others? Try it yourself, and when it has failed to fulfil the assurance of its efficacy given by the proprietor, then abandon faith in it.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED,

first of all, that HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is not a rum beverage.

They are not alcoholic in any sense of the term. They are composed wholly of the pure juice or vital principle of roots. This is not a mere assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest of German chemists. Unlike any other Bitters in the market, they are wholly free from spirituous ingredients. The objections which hold with so much force against preparations of this class, namely—that a desire for intoxicating drinks is stimulated by their use, are not valid in the case of the German Bitters. So far from encouraging or inculcating a taste or desire for inebriating beverages, it may be confidently asserted that their tendency is in a diametrically opposite direction. Their effects can be in all cases of the biliary system. Hoofland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting promptly and vigorously upon the Liver; they remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of bile—thereby supplying the stomach with the most indispensable elements of sound digestion in proper proportions. They give tone to the stomach—stimulating its functions, and enabling it to perform its duties as nature designed it should do. They impart vigor and strength to the entire system, causing the patient to feel like another being—in fact, giving him a new lease of life.

BENEFICIAL ONLY

THEY PURIFY THE BLOOD,

cleansing the vital fluid of all hurtful impurities and supplanting them with the elements of genuine healthfulness. In a word, there is scarcely a disease in which they cannot be safely and beneficially employed; but in that most generally prevalent distressing and dreaded disease, Dyspepsia,

THEY STAND UNRIVALED.

Now, there are certain classes of persons to whom extreme Bitters are not only unpalatable but who find it impossible to take them without positive discomfort. For such has been specially prepared. It is intended for use where a slight alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the well-known Tonic properties of the pure German Bitters. This Tonic contains all the ingredients of the Bitters, but so flavored as to remove the extreme bitterness. This preparation is not only palatable but combines, in modified form, all the virtue of the German Bitters. The solid extracts of some of Nature's choicest restoratives are held in solution by a spirituous agent of the purest quality. In cases of languor or excessive debility where the system appears to have become exhausted of its energies,

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

HOOFLAND'S TONIC

acts with almost marvelous effect. It not only stimulates the flagging and wasting energies but invigorates and permanently strengthens its action upon the Liver and stomach thorough, perhaps less prompt than the Bitters, when the same quantity is taken is none the less certain. Indigestion, Biliousness, Physical or Nervous Prostration, yield readily to its potent influence. It gives the invalid a new and stronger hold upon life, removes depression of spirits, and inspires cheerfulness. It supplants the pain of disease with the ease and comfort of perfect health. It gives strength to weakness, throws despondency to the winds, and starts the restored invalid upon a new and gladsome career. But Dr. Hoofland's benefactions to the human race are not confined to his celebrated or his invaluable TONIC. He has prepared another medicine, which is rapidly winning its way to popular favor because of its intrinsic merits. This is a perfect substitute for mercury, without any of mercury's evil qualities.

GERMAN BITTERS,

These wonderful Pills, which are intended to act upon the Liver, are mainly composed of Podophyllin, or the

VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE MANDRAKE

Now we desire the reader to distinctly understand that this extract of the Mandrake is many times more powerful than the Mandrake itself. It is a medicine virtues of this health-giving plant in a perfectly pure and highly concentrated form. Hence it is that two of the Podophyllin Pills constitute a full dose, while anywhere six to eight or a handful of preparations of the Mandrake are required. The Podophyllin stimulating its functions and causing it to make its biliary secretions in regular and proper quantities. The injurious results which invariably follow the use of mercury is entirely avoided by their use. But it is not upon the Liver only that their powers are exerted. The extract of Mandrake contained in them is skillfully combined with four other extracts, one of which acts upon the stomach, one upon the upper bowels, one upon the lower bowels, and one prevents any griping effect, thus producing a pill that influences the entire digestive and alimentary system, in an equal and harmonious manner, and its action entirely free from nausea, vomiting or griping pains common to all other purgatives.

ACTS DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER,

Possessing these much desirable qualities, the Podophyllin becomes invaluable as a FAMILY MEDICINE.

No household should be without them. They are perfectly safe, require but two for an ordinary dose, are prompt and efficient in action, and when used in connection with Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, or Tonic, may be regarded as certain specifics in all cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, or any of the disorders to which the system is ordinarily subject. The act upon the stomach and bowels, carrying off improper obstructions, while the Bitters or Tonic purify the blood, strengthen and invigorate the frame, give tone and appetite to the stomach, and thus build up the invalid anew.

Dr. Hoofland, having provided internal remedies for diseases, has given the world one mainly for external application, in the wonderful preparation known as

DR. HOOFLAND'S GREEK OIL.

This Oil is a sovereign remedy for pains and aches of all kinds.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Chilblains, Sprains, Burns, Pain in the Back and Loins, Ringworms, &c., all yield to its external application. The number of cures effected by it is astonishing, and they are increasing every day.

Taken internally, it is a cure for Heart-burns, Kidney Diseases, Sick Headaches, Colic, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains in the Stomach, Colds, Asthma, &c.

The Greek Oil is composed entirely of healing gums and essential oils. The principal ingredient is an oily substance, procured in the southern part of Greece. Its effects as a destroyer of pain are truly magical. Thousands have been benefited by its use, and a trial by those who are skeptical will thoroughly convince them of its inestimable value.

These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

CHAS. M. EVANS, Proprietor.

These Remedies are for sale by Druggists, Storekeepers, and Medicine Dealers everywhere.

A Parody.

[Respectfully dedicated to a young Lady visiting Catawissa a week or so ago.]

THE FASHIONS.

The shades of night were falling fast,
As through our village streets there passed
A lass who on her head did wear,
A "waterfall" of horses' hair!
Her hair was false her eyes were blue,
Her teeth, ah! they were all false too;
And like a penny trumpet rung,
The accents of her childish tongue
"The Fashions!"

So down the street she slowly rolled,
Shaking her earring made of gold (?)
But ah! indeed it was heartrending,
To see the way she was bending;
Like to a bended bow she goes
On the tip ends of her dainty toes.
Her arms are very slim and long,
The boys yell out both loud and strong
"The Fashions!"

So like her old bent-over "dad,"
She goes along on her promenade.
Her head, I think does forward tend,
Alas! she has the Grecian Bend.
Hat, ribbons, panier all complete,
From the crown of her head, to the soles of her feet,
How foolish is—ah but hark,
It seems the very dogs would bark
"The Fashions!"

Her cheeks are all besmeared with paint,
She looks as if she was going to faint;
But why do all so laugh and scoff,
Ah! look there! one heel is off.
So she goes home in a style she thinks "smashing"
Entirely dressed in the heighth of the fashion.
The servant girl who ope's the door,
Shakes with laughter o'er and o'er
"The Fashion"

An Editor's Table.

WILL M. CARLETON, in a recent poem, draws the following picture of an editor's table:

The editor sat in his sanctum, his countenance furrowed with care,
His mind at the bottom of business, his feet at the top of a chair,
His chair-arm an elbow supporting, his right hand upholding his head,
His eyes on his dusty old table, with different documents spread:—
There were thirty long pages from Howler, with underlined capitals topped,
And a short request on from Growler, requesting his newspaper stopped;
There were lyrics from Gusher, the poet, concerning sweet flowrets and zephyrs,
And a stray gem from Plodder, the farmer, describing a couple of heifers;
There were billets from beautiful maidens, and bills from a grocer or two,
And his best leader hitched to a letter which inquired if he wrote it or who?
There were raptures of praises from writers, of the smooth and mellifluous school,
And one of his rival's last papers, informing him he was a fool;
There were several long resolutions, with names telling whom they were by,
Canonizing some harmless old brother who had done nothing worse than to die;
There were traps on that table to catch him, and serpents to sting and smite him;
There were gift enterprises to sell him, and bitters attempting to bite him;
There were long, staring "ads" from the city, and many with never a one,
Which added, "Please give this insertion, and send in your bill when you're done."
There were letters from organizations—their meetings, their wants and their laws—
Which said "Can you print this announcement for—the good of our glorious cause?"
There were tickets inviting his presence to festivals, parties and shows,
Wrapped in notes, with "Please give us a notice," demurely slipped in at the close;
In short, as his eye took the table, and ran o'er its ink-spattered trash,
There was nothing it did not encounter; excepting, perhaps—it was Cash.

A Boy's Abvice to Old Men.

I cannot pick up a newspaper without "Advice to Boys" stares me in the face. Old men write it, I s'pose. Nobody else is capable of giving advice to boys, of course not! They know all about us, they do, 'cause they have been there. Advice is a good thing to have, no doubt, and no family should be without it, but a feller don't want to be crammed with it all the time to the exclusion of all other diet.

Now old men need advice occasionally, but in looking through the papers, I don't see that they get it, so I just thought I would write a little "Advice to Old Men" myself, if I am not presuming too much—as Aunt Chloe says—and I presume I am.

In the first place you old chaps ought to get over telling how much smarter boys were when you were boys, than boys are now. You believe it yourself, of course, 'cause you've said it so many times, but we boys can't see it. We have a notion that boys are boys, pretty much,—except that some are girls—the world over, and one generation of them don't lay over another generation to any alarming extent.

Only let you tell it, and you could out-run, out-jump, out-wrestle, and out anything else the rising generation of to-day, when you were boys. Grandfather, who has got the gout and five or six different kinds of rheumatism, is always saying that "I would I were a boy again." I would he were too. If I couldn't beat him running, and flop him on his back, side holt, I don't want a cent.

I wouldn't go so far as to say, "Parents obey your children," but I would suggest to fathers that they give us a hearing occasionally on matters in which we are the most interested. Do not make us slide down hill when we want to skate, and don't try to make preachers of us when we much prefer to run a saw mill. This is figurative, but I guess you know what I mean.

After giving us boys sage advice about our conduct, and how to behave, you old men ought to be careful how you get to relating your boyish scrapes to each other and laughing about them before we are out of earshot. The other day grandfather read me a long lecture about the rights of property, temperance and Sunday breaking.

That night an old crony of his'n came to visit him and they had a glass of punch together. They thought I was asleep on the sofa, and the way they went on about the fun they had when they were boys together. They told all about robbing Capt. Lyman's melon patch, and it turned out it was a Sunday night, too! When I went to bed they were taking their third glass of punch, and I don't know how many more they had after that. I know grandfather's rheumatism was a deal worse the next day, and he complained about his liver. Old men ought to be careful about taking too much punch. I know how old men hate to give in that they can't stand as much as they used to, or as much as young men can. They get mad if a fellow hints that they can't. But what is the use of fooling yourselves? We have all got to give out some day, and when a man feels he is losing grip, why not come down and acknowledge the corn?

Now, in the above remarks I do not mean any disrespect. I like old men in their place, but I don't want too much of their advice. Give the boys a chance.

A BOSTON lady thinks she is going to get to heaven on the strength of her well-known charity to the poor. She has frequently been known, without any display of ostentation, to boil a large number of eggs, and when the poor people came to her door distribute it to the hungry callers. Such acts of charity are unusual in Boston; but that's a little too thin to get to heaven on without stirring in a little thickening.

"MR. BROWN, you said the defendant was honest and intelligent. What makes you think so? Are you acquainted with him?"

"No, sir, I have never seen him."

"Why, then, do you come to such a conclusion?"

"Because he takes ten newspapers, and pays for them in advance."

Verdict for defendant.

CONSUMPTION,

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT,

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition, the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or the womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continues to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M., to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a curer of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

SEVEN REASONS WHY

GESS

IS THE BEST LINIMENT IN THE WORLD

FOR HORSES.

FIRST.—It is composed of the most powerful and PENETRATING liquids known in Chemistry.

SECOND.—Combined with the above is a MEDICINAL OIL, made expressly for this Liniment, and mixed by an entirely new process.

THIRD.—The use of the penetrating and protracting ingredients is to drive or force in this beautiful MEDICINAL OIL, which lubricates the joints and muscles, and immediately soothes the disease, and compels it to [illegible], sickening and poisonous lungs.

FOURTH.—This MEDICINAL OIL is used for the same reason that a good machinist always uses oil—to make his machinery work with ease and precision. So in the same way the muscles and joints of our animals should be lubricated if we wish to have them travel with rapidity and ease.

FIFTH.—It is very soothing in its action, will not burn or blister the animal like most of the "red hot" liniments of the day.

SIXTH.—Not one drop of tincture of cayenne or red pepper can be found in its composition; for we hold that no liniment can be effective which burns and blisters the animal until the unfortunate dumb beast is almost driven to a craze.

SEVENTH.—Every bottle is WARRANTED to give good satisfaction, or your money will be refunded. This shows conclusively that the proprietors have full confidence in this preparation, and proves for the seventh time that G. E. S. S. is the best Liniment in the world for horses.

☞ Don't allow your Merchant to palm off Tinctures of Red Pepper and Hartshorn, or other trash on you, but ask for G. E. S. S. for Horses, and take no other.

They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect.
